Continental Breakfast followed by special workshop presentation – "CASS Retirement Decision-Making Workshop"
Although many AOM members have reached or are nearing retirement age, most intend to put off retirement to some unspecified date. Research shows that:

- a) most retirees said they had not adequately planned in advance, and
- b) most working academics over 50 have given retirement little or no thought.

Retirement, regardless what event may trigger the decision, can be a happily-ever-after event, or it can be a wrenching adjustment regardless of wealth and income. Join us at the CASS breakfast August 4th at 8AM, and stay for a free 90-minute workshop exploring retirement decision-making facilitated by Tom Hilton and Lois Tetrick, supported by several CASS members. Spouses and significant others are encouraged to join us. RSVP to:
